

2-days of compact training

Psychology for PowerPoint Trainers

Are you persuading your listeners, or do you just hope for an occasional someone who sees the light?

We recommend this training if you...

- already have a basic knowledge of PowerPoint
- want to expand your knowledge on creating slides
- desire to create a new professional design for your slides

Contents

A trainer, psychologically and pedagogically qualified and licensed by Microsoft, imparts to you

- texts that you can motivate your listeners with ease
- colors, shapes and layouts that leave a lasting impression
- how to leave a permanent and positive impact

Type of training:

In-house Seminar

Prior to the training:

In advance, you receive the files from the self-learning-CD „Psychology for PowerPoint” valued at 189 euros (for manager Seminars) FREE for your training preparation.

Please send examples from your slide collection prior to training.

During the training:

Working closely with you, we'll find your improvement potential from a software-technical, pedagogical and psychological point of view.
